A MESSAGE FROM GENESIS

Abraham

The Blessing for All Nations

The Call to Go

Genesis 12:1 (NKJV) | Called in Ur to a life of pilgrimage.

The Sevenfold Promise

Genesis 12:2-3 (NKJV) | Each loss answered

A great nation	A blessing	A great name	All families
Makes up for his country	Makes up for his family	Makes up for his father's house	Fulfilled in Christ, the promised Seed

Seven promises: a land · a great nation · prosperity · a great name · a channel of blessing · blessing and cursing · all families

The Blessing for All Nations

Genesis 12:3 (NKJV)

The lower blessing is Abraham's: a nation, a blessing, a name. The higher is the world's: “In you all the families of the earth shall be blessed.” That blessing is Christ, the promised Seed (Galatians 3:16).

The Covenant Renewed

Genesis 12:2-3 renewed and enlarged

Genesis 13:14-17

The land, and offspring like the dust

Genesis 15:4-6

An heir from his own body; faith counted as righteousness

Genesis 17:10-14

The covenant given its sign

Genesis 22:15-18

God's oath: all nations blessed in his Seed

Count the Stars

Genesis 15:5-6 (NKJV) — “And he believed in the LORD, and He accounted it to him for righteousness.”

When Faith Takes Shortcuts

Genesis 16 (NKJV)

Waiting is the hardest part of the promise. Abraham helps God, and the help costs generations.

The Promise Kept

Genesis 21:1-7 (NKJV)

- Twenty-five years between the promise and the child.
- God is never late, but He is rarely early.
- Isaac means laughter — doubt turned into joy.

The Mountain of Testing

Genesis 22:14 (NKJV)
“The-LORD-Will-Provide”

Living in the Blessing

- Trust Christ, the promised blessing for every nation.
- Go where God sends, before you see the map.
- Hold the promise without forcing the timing.
- Build an altar — mark what God has done.
- Share what you have received — an application of this promise, not its meaning.

In Christ, All Nations Are Blessed

Genesis 12:3 | Galatians 3:8 (NKJV)
